What is Spanish Club?

The Spanish Club is an organization that enriches knowledge of the Hispanic Culture on campus. This club is not only for Hispanic students or students taking a Spanish class, but for anyone who would like to enhance their cultural awareness. Another great aspect of this club is you get a chance to meet new people, make friends...and learn a little Spanish too! The only requirement to join is to come to the meetings on a regular basis and become involved in our activities.

Why Join?

Learn about Spanish culture, meet new friends, enjoy Hispanic food, festivities and celebrations!

Spanish Society and Culture

Spanish Family Values
- The family is the basis of the social structure and includes both the nuclear and the extended family, which sometimes provides both a social and a financial support network.
- Today, it is less common than previously for family members to work in a family business, as personal preferences are important and university education is general.
- The structure and the size of the family vary, but generally, people live until longer lives, have fewer children than before, and fewer people live in their homes with extended family.
- Familial networks have become less tight. The greatest changes have occurred inside families, between men and woman, and the parents and children because the values that inspire these relations have changed.

Religion in Spain
- The majority of Spaniards are formally Roman Catholic, although different religious beliefs are accepted.
- During the history of Spain, there have been long periods of where different religious groups have coexisted, including Muslims, Jews and Christians.
- Still some traditions manifest more like a cultural event than a religious one.
- During Holy Week, many

. Religious history is apparent in every small town, where the most grandiose building is typically the church. In the large cities the Cathedrals are almost museums.

ETIQUETTE CUSTOMS IN SPAIN

Meeting Etiquette
. When introduced expect to shake hands.
. Once a relationship is established, men may embrace and pat each other on the shoulder.
. Female friends kiss each other on both cheeks, starting with the left.
. People are often referred to as Don or Dona and their first name when in formal occasion as a general rule.
. Many men use a two-handed shake where the left hand is placed on the right forearm of the other person.

Dining Etiquette
. If invited to a Spaniard's home, you can bring chocolates, pastries, or cakes; wine, liqueur, or brandy; or flowers to the hostess.
. If you know your hosts have children, they may be included in the evening, so a small gift for them is always appreciated.
. Indicate you have finished eating by laying your knife and fork parallel on your plate, tines facing up, with the handles facing to the right.
. Do not get up until the guest of honor does.

BUSINESS ETIQUETTE AND PROTOCOL

Relationships Communication
. The Spanish prefer to do business with those they know and trust.
. It is important that you spend sufficient time letting your business colleagues get to know you.
. Once you develop a relationship, it will prevail even if you switch companies, since your Spanish business colleagues' allegiance will be to you rather than the company you represent.
. Face-to-face contact is preferred to written or telephone communication.
. The way you present yourself is of critical importance when dealing with Spaniards.
. It is best to display modesty when describing your achievements and accomplishments.
. Communication is formal and follows rules of protocol.
. Avoid confrontation if at all possible. Spaniards do not like to publicly admit that they are incorrect.
. Trust and personal relationships are the cornerstone of business.
. Spaniards, like many societies, are concerned that they look good in the eyes of others and try to avoid looking foolish at all.

Continued

Dress Etiquette
. Business dress is stylish yet, conservative.
. Dress business casual.
. Elegant accessories are important for both men and women.

Business Cards
. Present your business card to the receptionist upon arriving.
. Have one side of your card translated into Spanish.
. Hand your card so the Spanish side faces the recipient.

Table manners
. Remain standing until invited to sit down. You may be shown to a particular seat.
. Always keep your hands visible when eating. Keep your wrists resting on the edge of the table.
. Do not begin eating until the hostess starts.
. Use utensils to eat most food. Even fruit is eaten with a knife and fork.
. If you have not finished eating, cross your knife and fork on your plate with the fork over the knife.
. The host gives the first toast.
. An honored guest should return the toast later in the meal.
. It is acceptable for a woman to make a toast.
Meeting Etiquette

- Appointments are mandatory and should be made in advance, preferably by telephone or fax. Reconfirm in writing or by telephone the week before.
- You should try to arrive on time for meetings.
- The first meeting is generally formal and is used to get to know each other. Do not be surprised if no business is actually conducted during the first meeting.
- Agendas are often used but not always needed to be followed too strictly.
- Make sure all your printed material is available in both English and Spanish.
- Not all businesspeople speak English, so it is wise to check if you should hire an interpreter.
- Several people may speak at once. You may be interrupted while you are speaking.
- Decisions are not reached at meetings. Meetings are for discussion and to exchange ideas.
- Most Spaniards do not give their opinion at meetings. Therefore, it is important to watch their non-verbal communication.
