If you did not send in a family tradition photo, it is not too late! We would love to see how every family celebrates the holidays!

If you volunteered to help with supplies for our Holidays Around the World unit, please send those items tomorrow.

Scholastic orders will come home tomorrow. In order for us to get the order in by break, please have those returned by Wednesday. I am sorry for the short turnaround time, but I want to make sure they get here in time. You can always shop at https://orders.scholastic.com/GLWWN for a broader selection!

If you are ordering for Christmas presents and would like for me to disguise them in a paper bag, please let me know.

Please make sure you have a winter change of clothes in your child’s backpack.

Be on the lookout for an email from Ammi regarding the Christmas Party. She will need three volunteers to help her with the party, but all parents (no siblings) are invited to attend. The party will be held Friday, December 20th from 9:45-10:45.

This week:
Monday—Kingdom Meeting
Tuesday—Christmas with Santa orders due
Wednesday—Parent Reader (Misty Baird)
Upcoming:
December 14—Breakfast with Santa (9am-11am)
December 20—Christmas Party—WEAR YOUR CHRISTMAS PAJAMAS (60% Day)
December 23—January 5: Christmas Holidays

Unit: Holidays Around the World
Book of the Week: The Legend of the Poinsettia
Sight Words: my, are, here
Word Family: -en (Ben, den, hen, Jen, men, pen, ten, then)
Reading: count syllables in words, identify and produce beginning and ending sounds in words, identify and produce rhyming words, author and illustrator, write about events in order, stretch out words when writing
Math: Recognize and write numbers 0-20, rote count to 100, recognize 2-D and 3-D shapes, addition/subtraction word problems, decompose numbers within 10
Social Studies: maps, wants vs. needs, traditions, customs
Character skill: self-control, big emotions, compassion, empathy

MADISON AVENUE IS WHERE THE HEART IS!

REMINDERS

* Daily: Send a snack. Check your child’s binder.
* Mondays: Kingdom meeting (Always wear your kingdom shirt); Return library books; Signed papers come home. (Don’t forget to sign the log behind the communication log in the binder. You can keep the signed papers as well as the note attached.)
  * Wednesdays: Wear tennis shoes for P.E.; Lunch visitors invited
  * Thursdays: Lunch visitors invited
  * Fridays: Send $1 cash if your child would like to purchase ice cream.

Email: kbridwell@madison-schools.com
Wish List: Amazon
Website: Mrs. Bridwell’s Kindergarten
Phone: 601-856-2951