Reminders

• If your child is participating in the reading fair, please bring their storyboard to school sometime tomorrow. They will not be accepted Tuesday.

• Holiday Heirloom order forms are coming home tomorrow. The proceeds from the sales of the ornaments go toward funding our arts program. These make great Christmas gifts! I still have Aiden's from when he was in kinder.

• Fall conferences will start this week. If you have not signed up for a day/time yet, please email me and we will work out a time for you to come review your child’s report card and progress.

• Mark your calendars! Our annual Thanksgiving Feast will be November 22nd. Parents are invited to join us for lunch at 11:00 am. Students will be asked to dress as a Pilgrim or a Native American. With Halloween next week, it is a great time to look for a costume!

• Our candy jar needs replenishing. If you have any sweet treats you would like to donate, we would love to have them!! Please make sure they are peanut free and gluten free. Thank you!

• We now have 21 COMPLETED Home Kits! WHOOHOO! I have ten more that I am working on to get us through the year and also give the children more choices. I couldn’t have done it without your help! I hope you and your child are enjoying them and prefer them to a worksheet packet. From what they say at school, they are really loving them! If you happen to get a kit that is missing an item or an activity that needs to be repaired or replaced, please let me know where I can track it down or fix it. I love seeing the pictures and receiving feedback. Keep them coming!

• Our field trip is Thursday! Don’t forget to send your child a sack lunch and a snack. Since we will be eating later than normal, we will have a morning snack. We are also asking the students to wear a MAE shirt or an orange/blue shirt. If you signed up to be a parent chaperone, I will be sending an email later in the week with the details.
